

BIOGRAPHIES

Paweł Świeżak – analyst in the National Security Bureau since 2007 (Department of Strategic Analyses). Master's degree from Warsaw School of Economics (international economic relations, 2004). Author of publications concerning national security and international politics ("National Security" Quarterly, Portal for International Affairs, "Unia and Polska"). Areas of interest: situation in Central and Eastern Europe, Polish security policy.

Dmytro Adamenko – state expert in the National Security and Defence Council of Ukraine, where he has been employed since 2006. Previously he was employed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine and posted in the Ukrainian Embassy in Uzbekistan. He graduated from the Institute of International Relations of the Kyiv Shevchenko National University (2000), where he studied International Information.

Krzysztof Liedel, PhD – lawyer, PhD degree in security management area, expert on international terrorism and terrorism combating. Trainee of the National Counterterrorism Center in the USA. Former Head of the Unit for Terrorism Combating of the Public Safety Department in the Ministry of Interior and Administration of the Republic of Poland. He was lecturer and director of Terrorism Studies Center at Collegium Civitas in Warsaw. Currently he is the Deputy Director of the Department of Legal and Non-Military Affairs in the National Security Bureau.

Paulina Piasecka – graduated from the International Relations Institute, University of Warsaw. Trainee of the Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies. Former senior expert in the Unit for Terrorism Combating of the Public Safety Department in the Ministry of Interior and Administration of the Republic of Poland. Deputy Director for program matters of Terrorism Studies Center at Collegium Civitas, Warsaw. Currently she is the Head of the Unit of Public Safety in the Department of Legal and Non-Military Affairs in the National Security Bureau.

Viktor Mykolaiovych Soloviov – Head of the Branch for Internal Threats, Expertise and Analytical Department in the National Security and Defence Council of Ukraine (NSDC). Prior to his employment in the NSDC, he was working at the Institute of Legislation of Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, the National Academy of Public Administration, the Office of the President of Ukraine and as an economic crime investigator. He holds a PhD degree in Public Administration.

Paweł Pietrzak – graduated from Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Faculty of Political Science. Completed an expert course at George C. Marshall Center for Security Studies in Garmisch-Partenkirchen (Security, Stabilization, Transition and Reconstruction). He is the scholarship holder of the German Bundestag and the Humboldt University in Berlin – a half-year practice in Bureau of the Member of Bundestag – Christian Schmidt in the framework of International Parliamentary Scholarships (IPS) and the German Academic Exchange Service, the one-year study at the University of Bonn. In the National Security Bureau, he was employed as the Deputy Director of the Armed Forces Supervision Department and currently he is the Deputy Director of the Department of Strategic Analyses. Previously he was working as the General Counselor to the Undersecretary for Defence Policy in the Polish Ministry of National Defence.

Volodymyr Polischuk – Chief of Section at the National Security and Defence Council of Ukraine. Previously he was, among other functions, the Military Observer, UNAVEM-III (MONUA) in Angola and the Deputy Chief Liaison Officer, HQ Sector Sarajevo, UNPROFOR in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as the Deputy Force Commander, UNIFIL, Lebanon. The graduate of the Military College of Armor, Kharkov, the USSR and the Military Academy of Armor, Moscow, the USSR as well as the Defence Academy of the United Kingdom (Managing Defence in a Democratic, Market-based Society) and the George C. Marshall Center for Security Studies (Stability, Security, Transition, and Reconstruction), Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany.