Georgian Deputy Minister of Defence visits the NSB

Friday, 30 September 2011. Deputy Head of the NSB, Dr. Zdzisław Lachowski met with Georgian Deputy Minister of Defence, Nodar Charsziladze.

The parties emphasized a good climate and high intensity of relations between Poland and Georgia and expressed their hope that the dialogue will be continued during the visit of the Head of the NSB in Georgia, which is scheduled to the second half of October.

Other subjects discussed included also Polish and Georgian security systems and their functioning. Mr. Lachowski presented system solutions implemented in Poland, emphasizing that the NSB is actively analyzing them under the National Security Strategic Review.
