Head of the NSB for "Baltic Rim Economies"

Thursday, 29 December 2011. Please find below a link to the article written by the Head of the NSB for "Baltic Rim Economies". The article is another NSB's contribution to the debate on the amendment of the European Security Strategy.

On 24-25 October 2011 the Presidential Palace held a conference: „Rethinking the European Security Strategy”. It was organized by the International Relations Institute of the University of Warsaw and the Foundation for Strategic Research.

The National Security Bureau took the conference under its patronage; moreover, the representative of the NSB participated in the European conference dedicated to the subject and organized in Brussels on 21-22 November 2011 by the Belgian Royal Institute for International Relations (Egmont) and the Institute for European Studies of the Vrije Universiteit Brussel.
