Palestinian Ambassador visits the NSB

Wednesday, 15 February 2012. The Head of the NSB met with the Ambassador of Palestine in Poland, Azmi ALDaqq. The meeting was dedicated to the situation in the Middle East, including the peace process and the crisis in Syria.

The parties emphasized traditionally friendly character of ties between the Polish and Palestinian nations and their efforts to strengthen them. They agreed that it is necessary to restart peace negotiations between the Palestine Autonomy and Israel aiming at solving the conflict and helping the countries to coexist. Another subject raised concerned the need for a harmony within the Palestinian Autonomy being the key element in the relations between Fatah and Hamas and the peace process in general.

The Head of the NSB expressed his concern about the events taking place in Syria and stressed that the actions carried out by the Syrian regime will not be accepted by the international community.
