Meeting with the Director of Policy and Political-Military Affairs Office at Israel's Ministry of Defense

Monday, 11 June 2012. Deputy Head of the National Security Bureau, Dr. Zdzisław Lachowski met with the Director of Policy and Political-Military Affairs Office of Israel's Ministry of Defense, Amos Gilad.

Mr. Z. Lachowski familiarized the guest with the Polish Armed Forces' development priorities and the potential for extending cooperation within this scope between both countries. Poland and Israel have extensive military experience, which should be applied in the special production.

Maj.-Gen. (res.) A. Gilad discussed political and military situation in the Middle East and East Asia and its possible development. He also said that our countries perceive security conditions similarly, which makes it a reliable fundament for further development of our cooperation and friendship.

Maj.-Gen. (res.) A. Gilad heads the Israeli delegation participating in the 9th session of Polish-Israeli Strategic and Defense Dialogue (11-13 June), organized by the Undersecretary of State for International Affairs at the Ministry of National Defense, Dr. Zbigniew Włosowicz.
