President condemn deadly attack on Paris satirical magazine

President Bronislaw Komorowski condemned on Wednesday the attack on the Charlie Hebdo weekly in Paris.

In a condolence cable to French President Francois Hollande, President Komorowski wrote that he was deeply moved by the deadly terrorist attack on the office of the satirical weekly newspaper Charlie Hebdo that killed at least 12 people.

"On behalf of the Polish people and my own behalf, let me offer words of sincere sympathy," President Komorowski wrote and conveyed condolences to the families of the victims and wished all the injured quick recovery.

The Polish president condemned the barbarous act of violence and described it as an attack on the fundamental values of the free world.
