"Poland will always be on side fighting against terrorism"

Poland will always be on the side of those fighting against terrorism, and when necessary it will also join in the fight, President Andrzej Duda told reporters after meeting with Israeli President Reuven Rivlin on Tuesday. The president is accompanied by head of the National Security Bureau (BBN) Pawel Soloch.

"We had a very good talk about Polish-Israeli cooperation, political as well as economic and military", the Polish president said, adding that he had great hopes for the future following the talks.

Poland is always in favour of fighting against terrorism, according to Duda.

"Today I repeated our assurances that Poland will always be on the side of those who fight against terrorism, and when necessary we will also take part in this fight, and will support anyone fighting against terrorism", he said. (PAP)
