Head of NSB meets the Secretary of the Security Council of the Russian Federation

On Saturday 8th May Head of the National Security Bureau, Minister Stanislaw Koziej saw the Secretary of the Security Council, Mr. Nikolay Patrushev in Kremlin.

Minister Stanislaw Koziej thanked Secretary Nikolay Patrushev for the meeting and gave his regards on the occasion of 65th anniversary of the end of the II WW. Head of NSB expressed his satisfaction with invitation of Polish soldiers to participate in the parade on the Red Square. This fact is also commemorating Polish participation in the victory over the Nazi Germany.

Referring to solidarity and assistance showed by the Russian authorities and people of Russia after the plane-crash near Smolensk on 10th April, Minister Koziej stated that Poland and Russia must not waste this chance to develop bilateral cooperation in the broadly defined field of security.

Secretary Nikolay Patrushev accepted the invitation to visit Poland this year and ordered his services to prepare Russian proposals for future cooperation between NSB and SC RF that could be discussed during his visit in Poland. Secretary of SC invited Minister Koziej to take part in the security conference in Soczi in October 2010.
