National Security Strategic Review summed up

Tuesday, 8 May 2012. President Bronisław Komorowski participated in the plenary conference recapitulating the National Security Strategic Review. The conference was opened by the Head of the National Security Bureau Stanisław Koziej who is heading the commission responsible for preparing and completing the Review.

During the conference, the experts presented results of works completed in the main problem areas, i.e. national interests and strategic goals, evaluation of security environment, concept of strategic actions and national security system.

Basing on the works performed by the teams, a report - the White Paper of the National Security - will be prepared.
