President of Poland visited South Korea

On 21 October 2013, during his travel to South Korea, President of the Republic of Poland Bronisław Komorowski visited Panmunjom in the Demilitarised Zone cutting across the Korean Peninsula and separating North and South Korea, and the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission camp. The president was accompanied by the Head of BBN Stanisław Koziej.

Earlier, during a Polish-South Korean economic summit in Seoul, President Komorowski said, that Poland is a good business partner for South Korean firms and a perfect place for investments.

During a joint press conference held together with South Korean President Park Geun-hye, President Komorowski announced, that Poland and South Korea adopted a declaration on strategic partnership.
