President expresses thanks to NATO troops stationed in Poland

Polish President Andrzej Duda on Monday expressed gratitude to Polish and US soldiers stationed in Żagań, north-east Poland, for services to their countries as well as global security.

President Andrzej Duda and Defence Minister Mariusz Błaszczak visited the Żagań military range as the first point of ceremonies marking the 20th anniversary of Poland joining NATO.

The president noted that the joint services of Polish and US soldiers on the territory of Poland is "something that we were striving for for many years."

The president was accompanied by the head of the National Security Bureau, Minister Paweł Soloch.
