Gen. Andrzejczak appointed for second term as chief of staff

President Andrzej Duda on Friday nominated Gen. Rajmund Andrzejczak as the Polish Armed forces' chief of General Staff for a second term.

Andrzej Duda said he was sure Andrzejczak would continue to fulfil his tasks with energy and engagement, and "with the panache that is characteristic of him, as well as with professionalism and commitment."

President said he would like to thank Andrzejczak and the whole team of people he has built. "I sincerely congratulate you on being named for a second term of office as chief of the General Staff of the Polish armed Forces," Andrzej Duda added. (PAP)
