Andrzej Duda: Ukraine can count on support from our country

Poland rejects the claim that Ukraine is part of Russia's zone of influence and believes Kiev has every right to fully integrate into the EU and Nato, President Andrzej Duda said on Twitter.

Andrzej Duda held talks with his Ukrainian counterpart, Volodymyr Zelensky, on Thursday and Friday. The two heads of state focused on the tense situation on the Russian-Ukrainian border, where Russia has amassed tens of thousands of troops, ramping up fears of a possible invasion.

„I told President Zelensky that Ukraine can count on support from our country,” Andrzej Duda said on Twitter after the talks.

Russia has demanded written guarantees from Nato that the it will not accept any new Eastern members and will remove its forces from countries that joined the alliance in 2004, such as the Baltic States, Bulgaria and Romania. (PAP)
