Andrzej Duda's meeting with Donald Trump

During his visit to New York, Polish President Andrzej Duda met with the 45th President of the United States Donald Trump.

The meeting lasted 2.5 hours. – It was a friendly meeting, in a very pleasant atmosphere,” Andrzej Duda said thereafter.

Following the meeting, Minister Wojciech Kolarski noted – An excellent meeting between two friends who recalled that time when they worked together for four years, holding presidential offices. It was a very good time, fruitful for the Polish-American relations. Donald Trump repeatedly stressed his great affection for Poland and the appreciation he has for the Poles.
